Who We Are

P S Quality Certifications (PSQC) is a well-established, leading management and ISO consultancy company in India. We have been operating for quite some time, and this has allowed us to obtain tremendous experience during our years of existence. Our Consultants are well versed in all the ISO Standards and will provide you with insight into all aspects of the process.

PSQC approaches every business client as a business partner, acknowledging that each organization follows its own dynamic evolution through the world market landscape. Thus, PSQC's mission is to add value to the workflow of the organizations, boost their distinctive processes and help them grow.

Our Team

Our team constitutes consultants, auditors and trainers who have a combined experience of more than 16 years in quality, environment, safety and health consulting will suggest the best industry practices to improve your organization's safety and productivity. We also develop training programs to educate your staff with the relevant knowledge and skills to compete in a fast-paced business environment.

About ISDE Academy

ISDE started in 2020 as a training academy works as a subsidiary for the parent organization P S Quality Certification which is active from 2006, focusing on providing quality education, thereby developing skills and enhancing Empowerment to professionals by narrowing the gap in expectations between industries and Educational Institutions

Now, ISDE is an established Professional Institution, well supported by highly qualified, devoted and experienced professionals. In today's era of AI and Machine Learning, we are adopting the following training methods for higher efficiency and effectiveness for our corporate employees. Group Discussion, Case study, and analysis, Role Play, Brainstorming, E-Learning. We offer a wide spectrum of customer-oriented and customized corporate training.

PSQC specializes in Evaluation, Auditing, Implementation of Management Systems according to the most widely used National and International Standards in all market sectors.

Our experts shall provide adequate training and conduct Gap Analysis to render any shortcomings by the organization to be an excel and stand out in the market. PSQCs' preparation for certification service, or "Gap Analysis," is ideal for clients who have documented and implemented a management system and are preparing to have it certified by a Third Party Certifying Body, but are unsure whether or not it will pass. One of our core focuses has always been getting companies certified against international standards. This is an excellent way for businesses to expand their customer base, win more contracts and achieve measurable improvements in quality, service, delivery and customer satisfaction.

PSQC is organizing and implementing Training Courses relevant to National and international Standards. All of PSQC appointed trainers are experienced and qualified Lead Auditors of Management Systems, ISO Technical Committee members etc., with extended knowledge and experience in the relevant field of training. We have internal auditor training modules & trainers for all certification standards. Most courses are available for both public and in-company/on-site presentation.
